New CSPA Website

Take to your keyboards and fire up your tablets because this week marks the launch of the CSPA's new website containing the latest news of its events, fundraising initiatives and committee meetings. There's much to see, including a section devoted to second-hand uniforms. So take a look, explore our site at cranbrookschoolparents.com and don't hesitate to get in touch if you have any suggestions or wish to help.

Quick Recap:

Last month's CSPA Chinese Quiz Night was a resounding success thanks to the 100 parents and friends who turned out in force to pit their wits against each other, raising £750 in the process.

Cranbrook Observatory took on a starring role during a March visit by parents and pupils to see its revamped telescopes during an evening of celestial-themed activities.

Following the success of the first Cranbrook Observatory star-gazing evening, organised by the Cranbrook & District Science & Astronomy Society, a second one followed last week. Keep an eye on our website to read how the evening went.

What's Coming Up?

On your marks, get set and . . . get ready for Sports Day on July 2 which promises a feast of athletic action. Come and support your children and their houses as they race for glory – and take advantage of CSPA refreshments too.

Time to Help

Do you have skills, and a little time, that could benefit Cranbrook School students? As part of the CSPA's new campaign, called Time to Help, we are looking for parents who have expertise and knowledge to share with pupils and aid their wider education, from sports coaching to careers advice.

STOP PRESS: The CSPA has a new chair Henrietta King, who was elected last month, but we are looking for more volunteers. Most crucially, we need a new treasurer and a co-ordinator for the school's branded merchandise. Please contact Henrietta if you can help.
